DWENGER'S GANT, NOBLESVILLE LEAD STATE FINALS AFTER FIRST ROUND

Fort Wayne Dwenger's Lauren Gant and the team from Noblesville lead the field after the first 18 holes in the 28th Annual IHSAA Girls Golf State Finals on Friday at The Legends of Indiana Golf Course in Franklin.

Gant, the top returning player from a year ago after a third place finish, fired an even-par 36 on the front nine to go with a 37 on the back for a 73. She leads Noblesville's Sally Shonk by two strokes. Caroline Haase of Culver Academy is third at 76 with Ellyn Leonard of Zionsville and Sarah Sparks of East Noble tied for fourth at 79. The nine players without an advancing team will compete in Saturday's final round. The cutoff came at 83.

Shonk's 75 led Noblesville which carded a team score of 335. The Millers, who will be looking for their first state title in girls golf, are trying to unseat five-time defending state champion Martinsville. The second-ranked Artesians are in third place at 341. Top-ranked Center Grove is running second at 337. Also competing for third-ranked Noblesville were Amber Prange at 82, followed by Julie Tomlinson and Katie Irwin at 89 and Melissa Gaus at 98. The top nine teams advanced with the cutoff coming at 357.

Also individually, Martinsville's Ashlie Rose and Center Grove's Katie Tewell are tied for sixth overall at 80.
