State Finals Summary

Terre Haute South, Fort Wayne Bishop Luers, Southwestern (Hanover) and North Vermillion etched their names into the IHSAA history books as state champions of the 27th Annual Girls Basketball State Finals held Saturday, March 2, 2002 in Conseco Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

A total of 5,344 players from 380 different schools were entered into the tournament at the sectional level. Attendance for the four-game event drew 17,320 fans.

Class 4A

Terre Haute South Outduels South Bend Riley

Box Score, Notes & Quotes

Terre Haute South got a big night from its junior center and staked claim to its first girls basketball state title with a 63-42 victory over South Bend Riley in the Class 4A championship game at Conseco Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

Third-ranked Terre Haute South had a decided height advantage with 6-6 junior center Reicina Russell roaming the paint. Russell tallied Class 4A records for scoring with 31 points and seven blocked shots and affected numerous other Riley attempts. The Braves constantly passed over the top of the Riley defense to Russell for easy layins. Russell scored 20 points and had five blocks in the first half alone.

Melanie Boeglin was the only other Brave in double figures with 10 points.

Juniors Suntana Granderson and Crystal Norman, Riley's two scoring leaders, did most of the damage for the Wildcats. Both chalked up 19 points and seven rebounds each, but no other Riley player scored more than two points.

The Braves, making their first appearance in the state finals, finished a 25-2 championship season under 20th year coach Alan Maroska.

Unranked South Bend Riley, also making it first trip to the finals, completed a 24-4 year under eighth-year coach Mike Megyesi.

Darci Rector of Terre Haute South High School was selected by members of the IHSAA Executive Committee as the recipient of the Patricia L. Roy Mental Attitude Award in Class 4A Girls Basketball. Farm Bureau Insurance, the IHSAA corporate partner, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Terre Haute South High School in the name of Darci Rector.

The award is named after Patricia L. Roy, the former assistant commissioner of the IHSAA, who is regarded both statewide and nationally as a pioneer in girls athletics. It is presented annually in each classification of the state finals to a senior who best displays mental attitude, scholarship, leadership and athletic ability and was nominated by her principal and coach.

Class 3A

New Coach, Same Result ◆ Fourth Straight Title For Bishop Luers

Box Score, Notes & Quotes

Even with a new coach at the reins, the outcome was still the same as Fort Wayne Bishop Luers defeated Gibson Southern, 51-37, to win the Class 3A state championship at Conseco Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

It was the fourth consecutive state championship for the Knights and the first in Class 3A. In the five years of class basketball, Bishop Luers becomes the first school to win titles in two different classes. The three previous championships came in Class 2A.

First year coach Teri Rosinski, who succeeded Gary Andrews after nine years, led the unranked Knights back to the top winning their ninth straight game to finish the season at 21-5.

Rosinski became the third woman to play and coach in the state finals joining Judi Warren and Leah Wooldridge. Rosinski was the 1977 Mental Attitude Award winner from Norwell and went on to be named Miss Basketball that year.

Bishop Luers' defense took Gibson Southern out of its game holding the Titans to a Class 3A record low scoring output. The Titans committed 28 turnovers in the game and Bishop Luers took advantage scoring 29 points off those miscues, 14 on fast-breaks. Luers committed 23 turnovers, but Gibson Southern only managed eight points from them.

After a tightly-played first quarter that saw Luers holding a two-point lead at the break, the Knights began the second period with a 10-2 run and Gibson never got closer than six points the rest of the game. Luers enjoyed a pair of 20 point leads midway through the fourth period.

Michelle Hamlin led the way for Luers with 14 points and six rebounds. Megan Dossen added 13 points. Ashley Nelson of Gibson Southern tallied 16 points and 10 rebounds to take game honors.

Gibson Southern, also unranked and making its first appearance in the state finals, completed a 24-5 year under eighth year coach Jason Blackard. Blackard also led the Gibson Southern softball team to a state runner-up finish in Class 2A last June.

Jamie Elpers of Gibson Southern High School was named as the recipient of the Patricia L. Roy Mental Attitude Award in Class 3A Girls Basketball by members of the IHSAA Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, the IHSAA's corporate partner, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Gibson Southern High School in the name of Elpers.

Class 2A

Hot-Shooting Southwestern Wins First State Championship

Box Score, Notes & Quotes

Top-ranked Southwestern of Hanover earned the first state championship in the school's history with a 70-64 victory over unranked Shenandoah in the Class 2A title game at Conseco Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

The Rebels (25-2) were led by their top four scorers on the season and all finished in double figures, including Catherine Graham's 20 points. Brianna Howard finished with 19, Julie Brawner with 18 and Autumn Walker 11. The 70 points scored by Southwestern was a Class 2A game record.

Fifth-year Southwestern coach Donna Cheatham, Indiana's all-time winningest girls basketball coach now with 458 victories, became the first girls coach to win state titles at two different schools. Cheatham had guided Scottsburg to the state championship in 1989.

Southwestern led the game from the outset extending its lead to as many as 12 points just before halftime. Shenandoah managed to chip away at the lead cutting it to three points with 5:42 left in the game, but could never get any closer.

The Rebels' hot shooting kept Shenandoah at bay throughout. Southwestern hit 24-for-43 from the field in the game for a Class 2A record .558 field goal percentage.

Amanda Norris of Shenandoah set a Class 2A scoring record with 30 points, which tied for the sixth best scoring output ever in a state finals game. She also tallied seven assists, another 2A game record. Teran Warner pulled down 13 rebounds for the Raiders tying the Class 2A mark.

It was a disappointing finish for Shenandoah (22-4), which finished as the state runner-up for the second year in a row and had its 15 game winning streak snapped. The Raiders lost to Fort Wayne Bishop Luers in the championship game a year ago, which is vying for the Class 3A crown this season. Five players returned from last year's team. Shenandoah was coached by Todd Salkoski now in his sixth year.

Brianna Howard of Southwestern High School in Hanover, was selected by the IHSAA Executive Committee as the recipient of the Patricia L. Roy Mental Attitude Award in Class 2A Girls Basketball. Farm Bureau Insurance, the IHSAA's corporate partner, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Southwestern High School in the name of Howard.

Class A

North Vermillion Edges Hebron For Class A State Championship

Box Score, Notes & Quotes

The battle between the top two ranked teams in Class A lived up to its billing as North Vermillion edged Hebron, 45-42, in the 27th Annual IHSAA Girls Basketball State Finals at Conseco Fieldhouse.

With a one point lead and one second remaining in the game, senior forward Sherri Norman sealed the victory for the Falcons with a pair of free throws for the final margin. Hebron's desperation shot at the buzzer fell short. Hebron had possession of the ball with 4.9 seconds left following a timeout when Norman made a steal on the in-bound pass and was fouled by Hebron's Lauren Bechtold, her fifth of the game.

It was the first state championship in any sport for top-ranked North Vermillion, a school of 254 students, located in Vermillion County along the Illinois state line in west central Indiana.

Hebron held a 9-7 first quarter lead, but North Vermillion took a 23-19 advantage into the lockerroom at halftime. The Falcons enjoyed their largest lead of seven points with 1:50 remaining in the third quarter at 32-25, but Hebron went on an 8-2 run to finish the quarter down 34-33.

Kayla Hinkle led North Vermillion with 14 points and Allison Hughes chipped in 12. The Falcons top scorer, Ashley Hughes at 14.9 per game, was held to two points. Hinkle also had 11 rebounds.

North Vermillion, making its first appearance in the girls basketball state finals, finished 25-1, including a 24-game win streak. They were coached by Ken Gentrup.

Second-ranked Hebron was led by Bechtold's 15 points and Lynn Poncsak's 10 points.

The Hawks, coached by Jerry Bechtold (Lauren Bechtold's father), finished 25-3 in its first trip to the state finals.

Lauren Bechtold of Hebron High School was named the winner of the Patricia L. Roy Mental Attitude Award for the Class A Girls Basketball. Farm Bureau Insurance, the IHSAA corporate partner, presented a $1,000 scholarship to Hebron High School in the name of Bechtold.
