RICHMOND CAPTURES STATE GOLF TITLE IN RECORD FASHION CHRIS BAKER, BROWNSTOWN CENTRAL, INDIVIDUAL MEDALIST

In record-setting fashion, Richmond High School, coached by Ron Murphy, captured the 67th Annual 2003 IHSAA Boys Golf Championship at the Legends of Indiana Golf Course in Franklin on June 18-19, 2003.

With a record single-round total of 288 on opening day and a second day effort of 299, the Red Devils finished up with a 587. ♦ That total broke the old mark of 589, set by Mishawaka Marian in 2001. ♦ The previous single-round mark was 293, held by Anderson and set at Old Oakland Golf Course in the second round in 1972.

Richmond put together consistent individual totals by sophomore Brian Maurer (76-70 ♦ 146), senior Jon Schultz (72-74 ♦ 146), sophomore Ben Lakoff (72-76 ♦ 148), senior A.J. Walton (71-79 ♦ 150) and senior C.D. Hockersmith (73-80 ♦ 153) to win by seven strokes over runner-up Center Grove.

The title was the fifth earned by Richmond, having taken home honors in 1941 (322/9 holes), 1993 (618), 1996 (614) and 1997 (616). ♦ The Red Devils were also state runners-up in 1936, 1973 and 2002.

The record also fell on the individual side of the competition, with Chris Baker (11), Brownstown Central going low each day with rounds of 68-67 for a new record total of 135, breaking the old standard of 139 set by Gary Gant of North Central (Indpls.) in 1970. ♦ Baker finished seven strokes in front of Alex Kopko (11) of Center Grove, who managed a 71-71 ♦ 142.

Other participants turning in rounds in the 60s included: ♦ James Sacheck (11), Zionsville (69/1st round); Justin Kime (12), Concord (68/1st round); and Aaron Knapp (11), Columbus North (69/1st round).

COLE ISBAN OF MISHAWAKA MARIAN CAPTURES ♦ FRED A. KEESLING MENTAL ATTITUDE AWARD IN IHSAA GOLF

Cole Isban of Mishawaka Marian was named winner of the 2003 Fred A. Keesling Mental Attitude Award in golf during the annual state tournament conducted at the Legends of Indiana Golf Course on June 18-19, 2003.

The award is presented annually to an outstanding senior in the boys golf state tournament, the recipient of which was nominated by his principal and coach, has demonstrated excellence in mental attitude, scholarship, leadership and athletic ability in golf. ♦ The award is named in honor of the late Fred A. Keesling, the longtime IHSAA Boys Golf Tournament Director.

Cole Isban, state medalist in 2001-02, turned in a 143 (70-73), tied for third place in this year's event. ♦ A four-year letter winner and captain of this year's team, he is two-time All-State nominee and was named this year to the Honorable Mention All-State squad. ♦ He had earlier fired a school record nine-hole record of 31 and tied the school mark of 67 at the regional level of the state tournament. ♦ He finished with the lowest scoring average in the history of the school with a 71.9.

Athletically, he was also a member of the Knights ♦ soccer and basketball teams earlier in his career, before focusing on his golfing career.

Academically, Cole ranked 12th in his class of 155. He was graduated with High Honors and will attend the University of Notre Dame as a Business Major. ♦ He was a member of the Civitan and Spanish Clubs and well as performing as a Student Ambassador. ♦ He was involved with the South Bend/Mishawaka Youth Leadership. ♦

Cole is the son of Debra and Michael Isban of South Bend, Indiana.

Farm Bureau Insurance, corporate partner of all IHSAA tournaments, presented a check for $1,000.00 to Mishawaka Marian High School in the name of Cole Isban.
