

2002-03 IHSAA Gymnastics State Tournament Series

State Finals Summary

Bishop Dwenger Edges Defending Champ Chesterton For Crown

The 31st Annual IHSAA Girls Gymnastics State Championship was decided on March 22, 2003 at Perry Meridian High School in Indianapolis, with Fort Wayne Bishop Dwenger picking up its second title, outpointing defending state champ Chesterton, 111.425-110.950. The Saints had captured the 1995 championship, also under head coach Rose Nix and, again, edging Chesterton by a close margin. For Chesterton, it was their third runner-up finish.

Niccole VanHoey, state champ on the Vault in 2002, had another strong performance to lead the way for Bishop Dwenger, finishing in a tie for 9th on the Vault, a tie for 5th on the Uneven Bars, 11th in the Floor Exercise and 10th in the All-Around.

Other top 10 finishers for the Saints included: Courtney Peters, who finished eighth on the Balance Beam and tied for fifth on the Floor Exercise to collect fifth place in the All-Around competition; Rebeccah Trahin finished third on the Floor Exercise and Jennifer Hicks seventh on the Balance Beam.

Rebekah Porter of Valparaiso won the All-Around competition with 38.050 points by capturing first place in both the Vault (9.800) and in the Floor Exercise (9.775). Ashley Jacob of Lawrence Central finished first on the Uneven Bars (9.650) and Leslie West of Chesterton took home honors on the Balance Beam (9.575).

The IHSAA Executive Committee named Lauren West of Chesterton as the winner of this year's Mildred M. Ball Mental Attitude Award in Gymnastics. Farm Bureau Insurance, IHSAA corporate sponsor, presented a $1,000 check to Chesterton High School's scholarship fund in the name of Lauren West.

The tournament series attracted 92 schools and 715 student-athletes this year.
