

2001-02 IHSAA Boys Swimming & Diving State Tournament Series

State Finals Summary

Carmel Boys Rack Up Record 299.5 Points En Route To Second Straight Title

The Carmel Greyhounds rolled to their ninth state championship in the last 13 years at the 65th Annual Boys Swimming and Diving State Finals at the I.U. Natatorium on Saturday, February 23, 2002. After winning by 80 points a year ago, coach Ken Stopkotte's squad began racking up points early on and were never headed, winning by a 145.5 point margin, 299.5-154 over second place South Bend Riley. North Central (Indpls.) placed third, just .5 behind with Hamilton Southeastern fourth and Homestead rounding out the top five.

Carmel got off to a strong start to open the event. After setting a new state meet mark of 1:33.05 in the prelims Friday night, Matt Belcher, Andrew Albright, Brandon Rector and Jason Cousins swam their way to a win in the 200 yard medley relay in 1:34.05 for the first 40 points of the event. Their 400 yard freestyle relay team of Matt Belcher, Chase Hitchens, Mark Enoch and Grant Wieczorek finished off the day in record fashion, defending last year's title and leaving the rest of the field to chase their 3:04.24 time, which broke the old standard of 3:04.30 that was established in 1994 by Carmel.

The only individual winner for the Greyhounds was Andrew Albright who finished first in the 100 yard breaststroke in 57.19, barely .13 ahead of Hamilton Southeastern's Daniel Walter. North Central (Indpls.) led the way with three individual champs, but Carmel's depth in so many events, and its pair of relay victories, allowed them to pile up the points and lay claim to yet another championship for the school. It was ninth title in boys swimming and diving for Carmel overall and the fourth state championship of the school year (Girls Soccer, Girls Cross Country, Girls Swimming and Diving).

It was a super swimming day for Brian Hartley of North Central (Indpls.) as he made it two in a row in the 200 yard free in a time of 1:37.96 and bettering his winning time of 1:39.54 in 2001. Hartley was back later in the meet with an impressive victory in the 500 yard freestyle. In a record time of 4:25.73, he bested the 4:26.25 set by Jason Mallory of Penn in 1998 laying claim to his third consecutive title in the event. In all, Hartley completed his career with five state titles.

The Panthers also hit the win column in the 200 yard individual medley as Alex Dawson, who finished second last season and qualified sixth this trip, led the way to the finish line in 1:50.66, over four seconds quicker than his preliminary time.

Louis Cavadini, a junior from South Bend Riley, and his brother, David, were both contestants in the 100 fly, believed to be the first brother combination to compete for a state title in the same event. Louis was a runner-up, while David finished seventh.

In diving, Jeffersonville's Marsh Lindley was a 462.0 to 456.20 winner over J.R. Hillis of Kokomo. Lindley had finished fifth last year.

Brian Hartley of North Central (Indpls.) High School was selected winner of the prestigious Herman F. Keller Mental Attitude Award by members of the IHSAA Executive Committee.

The award honors the former IHSAA assistant commissioner, Herman F. Keller, who served the association from 1961-1973. The recipient of the award, who was nominated by his principal and coach, must excel in mental attitude, scholarship, leadership and athletic ability in swimming and diving. Doug Wigand, a representative of Farm Bureau Insurance, IHSAA corporate partner, presented a $1,000 scholarship to North Central High School in Indianapolis in the name of Hartley, whose parents, Jan and Bob Hartley, were on hand to witness the occasion.

A total of 3,478 athletes from 219 schools began at the sectional level.
