

2002-03 IHSAA Wrestling State Tournament Series

Individual State Finals Summary

Eight Undefeated Wrestlers Claim Individual IHSAA Titles

Of the 24 undefeated wrestlers who entered the 65th Annual IHSAA Individual Wrestling State Finals at Conseco Fieldhouse on February 21-22, 2003, eight emerged victorious, taking home state championship crowns.

Evansville Mater Dei, ranked No. 1 as a team all season, finished up with four individual state champs, the most since Lawrence North in the 1992 IHSAA State Finals. Griffith wrestlers collected three state titles for themselves to account for half of the weight classes between the two teams.

Three individuals collected the third state championship of their careers: senior Jake O'Brien of Franklin Central at 215 and juniors Blake Maurer of Evansville Mater Dei at 171 and Alex Tsirtsis of Griffith at 135.

At 215, it was all O'Brien (44-0) as he sailed past New Haven's Zac Dommer (44-2), 11-4, for his third straight championship at that weight.

Maurer (43-1) was the champ in 2002 at 145 and at 130 in 2001 as a freshman and made it three in a row this trip in a dramatic 1-1 overtime victory on criteria over Mishawaka's Alex Dolly (46-1) for the 171 pound championship.

Tsirtsis rolled to a 15-5 decision over Justin Edwards of Bloomington South in the 135 pound final adding to his crowns at 119 in 2001 and at 130 in 2002. In the process, he earned his 62nd straight victory of the season and 178th consecutive overall, both state records.

In addition to O'Brien and Tsirtsis, other unbeaten state champions were:

Gralan Early (36-0) of Fort Wayne North Side at 119 pounds; Angel Escobedo (61-0) of Griffith at 125, who won his second state title after topping everyone at 112 in 2002; Griffith teammate Andrae Hernandez (61-0) at 130; Ryan Pribble (48-0) of Turkey Run, the smallest school in the state with a wrestling program, in the 140 pound bracket; Evansville Mater Dei's Craig Weinzapfel (41-0), the 2001 champ at 112, grabbed his second state title winning 145; and Chase Thompson of Frankfort (40-0) at 189.

John Sheets of Belmont High School was named winner of the Ward E. Brown Mental Attitude Award by the IHSAA's Executive Committee. Farm Bureau Insurance, the IHSAA corporate sponsor, presented a $1,000.00 scholarship to Belmont High School in the name of John Sheets.

The tournament drew 307 schools and 5,951 participants at the sectional level.

Team State Finals Summary

Mater Dei Takes Down Griffith For Ninth Consecutive State Championship

It was another day...and another state championship for Evansville Mater Dei in the 8th Annual IHSAA Team Wrestling Tournament on March 1, 2003 in front of a near capacity crowd at Center Grove High School in Greenwood. Since the IHSAA began conducting separate team and individual tournaments in 1995-96, Mater Dei has finished up in the winners' circle each year under head coach Mike Goebel.

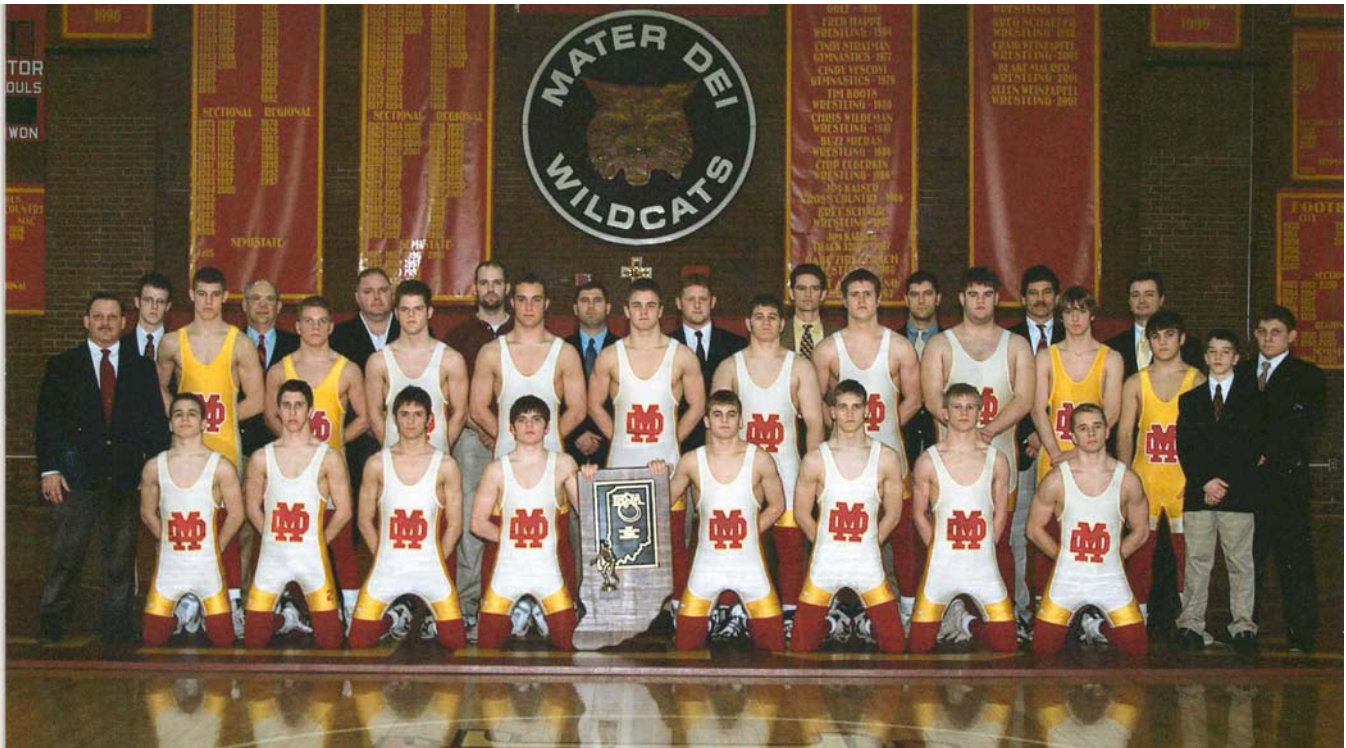

Ranked No. 1 all season long, the Wildcats picked up wins over Perry Meridian (54-9) in the quarterfinals, Belmont (48-11) in the semifinals and Griffith (42-23) in the state championship round.

Mater Dei got a leg up on the tourney title early. Starting out the competition at the 160 pound level determined by blind draw, they grabbed wins in the first five matches, including four pins, to jump out in front 27-0. Griffith responded with four consecutive wins of their own in the 119, 125, 130 and 135-pound brackets to cut the lead to 36-20, but Mater Dei then landed back-to-back wins by fall to take the insurmountable lead.

In the championship round, Craig Weinzapfel, who had won an individual state crown at 145 a week earlier, won by fall over Danny Lewis at 1:17. Other individual titleholders for Mater Dei who were victorious Saturday included, Dustin Nosko, winner by fall at 0:32 over Andy Raduski at 160, Sam Wildeman at 171, who won by fall at 1:15 over Derek Wartman and Blake Maurer, a 6-1 winner over David Martin III at 189.

Wrestlers for Griffith who had picked up individual crowns earlier and were triumphant Saturday included Angel Escobedo, who rolled past Craig Macke 20-8 at 125, Andrae Hernandez, a winner at 130 over Matt Coughlin, 5-2, and Alex Tsirtsis, with a 26-11 victory over Aaron Scott at 135.

Top-ranked Evansville Mater Dei finished out the season with a record of 23-1, their only loss at the hands of Graham High School in St. Paris, Ohio. Griffith, ranked third in the final state coaches' poll and coached by Travis Walls, closed out its runner-up season at 39-1 beating Mishawaka and Lawrence North on the way to the championship match.
