

2001 IHSAA BOYS BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Four first-time sectional champs

lead the way into regional round

A field of 64 sectional champions -- including four schools that won their first sectional titles -- returns to action Tuesday and Wednesday for regional competition at 32 sites in the 91st Annual IHSAA Boys Basketball Tournament.

At each site, one regional championship game will be played. Eight regional champions will be crowned Tuesday (March 13), with the remaining 24 on Wednesday (March 14). The 32 regional champions will move on to semi-state competition Saturday (March 17) at eight sites.

The regional field includes 20 of the 64 regional champions from 2000. The same sectional groupings were used in 2000 and 2001, as are the regional pairings. There are four regional championship rematches from 2000. The champions from the odd-numbered sectionals are designated as the regional hosts. In 2000, the regional hosts were the champions of the even-numbered sectionals.

Sectional week highlights

Led by Park Tudor, which eliminated defending Class A state champion Lafayette Central Catholic in a sectional championship overtime thriller, four schools won their first IHSAA boys basketball sectional titles in the opening week of the 91st IHSAA state tournament.

The Panthers were joined as first-time sectional champs by North Daviess in Class A, along with Eastern (Bloomfield) and River Forest in Class 2A. In the four years of the multiple-class format, 19 schools have won a boys basketball sectional title for the first time. Of the four first-time winners in 2001, River Forest waited the longest to celebrate its first sectional crown. The Ingots joined the IHSAA in the 1958-59 school year and were playing in their 43rd state tournament.

Brebeuf (Class 3A) was the only defending state champion to survive the first week of play, winning the Mt. Vernon (Fortville) Sectional. Marion (Class 4A) fell in the sectional semifinals to Huntington North and Westview (Class 2A) was ousted in the sectional finals by Glenn.

Blue River Valley (19-4) and Sullivan (23-2) extended their run of sectional championships to a state-leading four.

Waldron ended a 41-year title drought while winning its fourth sectional crown overall with a 51-40 triumph over Shelby County rival Morristown at the Class A Edinburgh Sectional. Waldron's last title came in 1960 at the Columbus Sectional. Other long gaps between titles came to an end for Speedway (28 years), Shenandoah (19 years) and Cascade (17 years).
