

381 SCHOOLS SET FOR 24TH GIRLS BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

A field of 381 teams will begin play Feb. 16 in the 24th Annual IHSAA Girls Basketball Tournament Series. For the second time, champions will be crowned in four classes on March 13 at Market Square Arena in Indianapolis. The four class champions will move on to the Tournament of Champions March 19 and 20 at Hinkle Fieldhouse in Indianapolis.

Sectional play is scheduled to conclude on Saturday, February 20. The 64 sectional winners -- 16 in each of the four classes -- will advance to regional competition on Saturday, February 27 at 16 sites across the state. Each site will have two regional championship games. At all but one regional site (Springs Valley), there will be two different classes represented with a championship game in each.

The 32 regional champions -- eight in each of four classes -- will advance to semi-state competition on March 6. There will be eight semi-states -- two in each of the four classes. At each semi-state site, two first-round games will be played the morning of March 6, followed by the semi-state championship game that night. The eight semi-state champions -- two in each of the four classes -- will advance to the state finals on March 13 at Market Square Arena.

At the state finals, there will be a championship game in each of the four classes, beginning with Class A at 11 a.m. and followed immediately by the Class 2A game. After a mid-afternoon break, the second session will begin with the Class 3A championship game at 6:30 p.m., followed by the Class 4A championship game.

Those four class champions will play March 19 and 20 in the Tournament of Champions at Hinkle Fieldhouse in Indianapolis. Conducted by blind draw, the Tournament of Champions pairings have the Class 3A winner meeting the Class 2A winner in the opening game, followed by the Class A winner against the Class 4A winner. The first-round winners will return the following night to play in the championship game.
